20th Anniversary Distinguished Citizen Dinner Honoring Richard L. Riesbeck

April 24, 2014
Muskingum Valley Council, BSA
Banquet Chair: Steve Marvin

Richard L. Riesbeck

Richard L. Riesbeck was appointed in 1982 as President and Chief Executive Officer of Riesbeck Food Markets, Inc., a privately-owned retail firm with 1,200 employees operating 15 supermarkets in Ohio and West Virginia. He is a graduate of Mountain State College with a Certificate in Accounting, Wheeling Jesuit University with a Bachelor of Arts Degree and Muskingum University with a Master of Education Degree. He holds graduate credits in Management from Mount Vernon Nazarene University, a graduate certificate in marketing from Cornell University and is also an adjunct professor of Marketing and Leadership at West Liberty University's BLA Program.

Mr. Riesbeck was elected in 1984 as a Director of United Bancorp, Inc. and The Citizens Savings Bank. He has been designated the Lead Director of the Company and Bank's Boards of Directors and is a member of their Executive Committees as well as the Chairman of the company's Audit Committee.

Mr. Riesbeck's past board service includes 15 years of service as a Board Member and Committee Chair for Wheeling Hospital and as a Board Member and Chairman of Wheeling Jesuit University. He presently serves as a Board Member and Independent Operator Committee member of Food Marketing Institute, an international, 2,300-member association of food wholesalers and retailers. He is a member of the Ohio Valley Advisory Council of the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland, a member of the National Association of Corporate Directors, the American Marketing Association and the Academy of Management.

In 2010, Riesbeck was invested by the late Cardinal John P. Foley as a Knight of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulcher of Jerusalem, a religious order of the Roman Catholic Church. The Order's primary mission is to provide spiritual and financial support to Christians living in the Holy Land.
