

Scouting, Schools and Educators

Scouting Programs are designed to instill lasting values of faith, and family, community and country. For over 100 years, Scouting has taught leadership, moral and ethical decision-making, and citizenship, As an educator, we know you value the growth and development of of these traits in all your students.

Don't take our word for it. According to a recent study*, Scouts and former Scouts are more likely to...

Donate Money
EXERCISE
WORK HARD
VOTE
VOLUNTEER
LEAD
READ
SET GOALS
EXCEED EXPECTATIONS
SHOW RESPECT

Programs of the Boy Scouts of America complement the goals of every educator in America. We look forward to continuing our work together to help current and future generations of students.

*Jang, Sung Joon, Bryon R. Johnson and Young-Il Kim. Eagle Scouts: Merit Beyond the Badge. Waco, TX: Baylor University Press. 2011.

Prepared. For Life.™

